

wedding with a view

Imagine waking up to the gentle lull of the Indian Ocean, stepping out into the warm Bali sun, taking in 180 degrees of uninterrupted sea view with the friendly seaweed farmers waving “Selamat pagi!” to you from down below on Pandawa Beach... Welcome to Villa Karang Putih—your very own lavish getaway from the rest of the world.

Villa Karang Putih is as secluded as it gets, its property sprawling across 13,500 sq.m. atop dramatic cliff-top land in Ungasan, overlooking the white sand beach of Pandawa on the southern coast of Bali. Bought last August by PT. SidoMuncul TBK

(a renowned herbal industry company in Indonesia) and refurbished in November 2014, the new owners have a strong vision to promote Villa Karang Putih as the island’s leading wedding venue with a capacity for more than 1,000 guests.

Villa Karang Putih boasts a total of 11 stunning bedrooms housed in three separate luxury villas: the Karang Nusa, the Karang Dua and the Karang Putih, each designed with a sophisticated interior and equipped with a full kitchen, a private swimming pool, plush bedding, bath amenities and a dedicated butler. On-site facilities and services include a helipad, a tennis court, mini-golf, mountain bikes and yoga mat rentals, free daily usage of a seven-seat luxury car (for eight hours), a complementary barbecue party for 22 and 24-hour security.

The Karang Nusa—the first villa as you enter the complex—features three beautiful bedrooms, one main swimming pool, two plunge pools, an in-house spa room and a manicured tropical garden perfect for an intimate party of 120.

The Karang Dua features two spacious bedrooms, an ocean-view pool with a natural wooden deck and a garden that can accommodate up to 200 standing guests. The villa oozes a beach house vibe that is reflected in its crisp furnishings and stylish interiors.

The Karang Putih is the masterpiece villa with an unparalleled panoramic ocean view visible from its living room, dining room and six ultra-chic bedrooms, as well as an indulgent 21m pool and a meticulously landscaped garden fit to host up to 500 standing guests.

Villa Karang Putih is well on its way to set a new definition for luxury private villas and spectacular wedding venues in Bali. Now that you’ve decided on the venue, we wait with bated breath for our wedding invitations!
